

HOPE LIVES HERE

Hope House Northern Colorado Introduction

Hope House NoCO was founded to empower teen moms in Larimer & Weld counties. Hope House is the first independent affiliate of Hope House Colorado (Arvada), an organization that has served over 700 teen moms in the Denver metro area over the past 19 years. Hope House NoCO uses best practices from this model to build personal and economic self-sufficiency, reduce generational poverty, and improve quality of life for teen moms and their children.

Hope House Programs

Hope House NoCO is the only comprehensive teen parent self-sufficiency resource in northern Colorado that provides all services in a single location. Hope House supports teen moms and their children through a variety of programs, all at no cost to families. Current offerings include:

- Parenting and healthy relationships classes
- Individual counseling with a licensed professional counselor
- Educational support, including GED tutoring and testing fees
- Childcare during activities and classes
- Product and financial support

Future planned offerings include:

- Financial literacy classes
- College and career planning support
- Early learning program for children of teen moms
